Main Street is an affordable, accessible, inclusive apartment building and a membership-based community center for adults of all abilities. We provide a rich variety of social, cultural, educational and wellness programs in the building's beautiful community spaces and around town — everything from baking classes and yoga sessions to artist workshops and professional lunch and learns. By creating a culture of kindness and possibility, and offering unique opportunities for community engagement, Main Street empowers people with and without disabilities to lead happier, healthier and more fulfilling lives.
